Shop the Big Apple

If you are visiting New York City, you can take advantage of the many shopping opportunities that the city offers. The Big Apple has a wide variety of stores selling merchandise in every price range from expensive jewelry, antiques, exclusive works of art and the latest designer fashions to bargain priced jeans, shoes and t-shirts. New York has some of the greatest shopping in the world. Nothing is quite like shopping on Fifth Avenue, in the heart of Manhattan, where you will find Tiffany's. Macy's, the world's largest department store, is located at Herald Square (famous for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade). Other great uptown shopping can be found on upper Madison Ave., from 59th to 79th street, where you will find the Giorgio Armani Boutique; or on Third Avenue, where Bloomingdale's is located. On 57th Street from Sixth Avenue to Second Avenue, there's a plethora of boutiques, with everything from sporting goods to electronics. For bargains, try Lower East Side NYC between Orchard and Delancey streets. Expert shoppers will come prepared with a list and will enjoy haggling over a staggering assortment.
